

Character Design Sample

Lautte Hidernis - Protagonist

Liberas Gratis Armed Forces, Municipal Perimeter Guard, 1st ID/3rd BN, Weapons Company, "Limbo". 3rd Platoon CO, 1st Lieutenant Lautte Hidernis.

Personality

Personality Type: ESTJ-A

Blood Type: O+

Traits: Deceptive, Impassive, Vengeful, Tactful

Lautte is the eldest of a trio of military brats. Cool under fire, she's a natural-born tactician and warfighter. While her parents wanted their children to pursue something other than military service, she saw it as a way to confront the discrimination people of ancestry like hers face in post-collapse Columbia and to instill the discipline needed to exert control over any unfavorable situation she comes across. With exceptional marks in the Liberis Gratis Military Academy with strong leadership capabilities to not only her class, but other cadet companies as well. Many cadets looking to get a project done seek her out for her no BS mannerism, devil may care attitude and surprising open mind to create alternative solutions for problems they come across.

Background

Nicknamed "LT" in the military academy as a way to shorten her name and convey the rank that many felt she'd get when she graduated. She underwent a baptism by fire in late 2028 in the arms manufacturing town of Unica, New Holland when the annual military academy field trip for that year's graduating class went awry.

Rallying the small remainder of an LGAF Engineering unit, town locals, and 130 academy cadets to defend the town against a 1000 strong bandit and mercenary alliance hellbent on taking the knowledge and weapons that supply the city of Liberis Gratis. Led by Lautte, they held out for five days as they awaited reinforcements. Following the end of the siege, LGAF's high command issues her a medal of honor. Something that is seldom seen in the past 50 years that this state has existed for.

Soon after, Lautte went into Municipal Force Recon after graduation. Being trained to provide long range reconnaissance, scout sniper support, and target surveillance. After a 2 year tour, she undergoes Officer Candidate School at a rebuilt West Point academy. Earning her gold bar as a 2nd Lieutenant. Making 1st Lieutenant in 2 years time while serving as 3rd platoon commander for Weapons Company, "Limbo", in its heavy machine gun platoon.

As of 2034, her unit is tasked with checkpoint screening and the security of Checkpoint Bravo situated on Brooklyn Bridge. A somewhat boring position compared to her prior service, but a necessary one. Her competency and experience shines through in ensuring threats are unable to pass by unnoticed into the city's inner borders.